Dr. J. Henry Harms was present in Orangeburg at the meeting of the Knights Templar last Tuesday evening and made a talk.

Miss Lilla Kibler is the latest to join the Old Guard, being a member of Company J, as reporter in the last issue of the Lutheran Church Visitor.

Mrs. John Martin Kinard complimented her guest, Mrs. A. P. Easterling, of Aiken, with an afternoon reception on Tuesday at her home in Calhoun street.

Mrs. A. P. Easterling, of Aiken, and Mrs. Clinton Brogdon, of Brogdon, were complimented by Mrs. W. H. Carwile with a bridge party of two tables on Wednesday afternoon.

A letter from Mrs. Geo. A. Wright, of Johnston, is full of good cheer. Brother Wright, while not yet ready for work, seems to be improving.—Baptist Courier, 27th.

Oliver Havard, of Newberry, came up Tuesday night to see "The Girl of My Dreams" at the opera house.—Abbeville Medium. Didn't know the girl of dreams lived there.

President J. H. Harms, of Newberry college, spent a short while in the city Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning.—Orangeburg Times and Democrat, 27th. And weren't you glad to see him? We know you were.

Mrs. Eugene F. Greneker, of Augusta, came to Newberry Saturday to get her mother-in-law, Mrs. Corrie Greneker to return with her on a visit. They left for Augusta Monday.

Mr. Clarence C. Epting, of Pomaria, one of the students going home about a month ago with typhoid fever, has returned to his studies. He rooms at Mr. J. A. Lindsay's.

Mrs. P. F. Baxter and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baxter saw the airships in Columbia Thanksgiving day.

Mr. James A. Burton, Jr., of Atlanta, is in the city.

Mr. Tick Smith has been stationed here again to the delight of his friends who are glad to welcome him back.—Calhoun Falls cor. Anderson Mail. That is our Jack they call Tick.

W. H. Hare and family recently took a trip to Parr Shoals to see the power works being built there. It is well worth anyone's time and trouble to see this work.—Delmar cor. Saluda Standard, 27th.

Misses Mary Link, Helen Smith, of Newberry, Elise Wannamaker, of Cheraw, and Miss Clinkscales, of Spartanburg, spent Thanksgiving here as the guests of Miss Augusta Blake.—Greenwood Journal.

Mr. M. L. Bullock returned Thursday from Clinton. He went there

Tuesday to see his old army comrade, Mr. Geo. Smith, whom he had not seen since the surrender. Mr. Bullock and Mr. Smith were members of Co. G. Second cavalry, C. S. A.

It was a great pleasure to meet, in the afternoon, the Sunday school of St. Paul's congregation, of which the Rev. M. J. Epting, D. D., is the able and efficient pastor.—Lutheran Church Visitor. There is a strong bond between Savannah and Newberry.

The men who will represent the Newberry Stylus at Due West at the meeting of the South Carolina College Press association are: N. M. Biser, L. Riser, J. L. Keitt and C. D. Weimar.—cor. Daily Press, 1st.

Mr. J. Y. Cooley entertained recently Mr. Mart Nichols, wife and daughter, of Newberry, Mrs. Lowman, of Silverstreet, also Mr. Joe Long, of Silverstreet. Miss Nichols is a student of Summerland college.—Leesville cor. Batesburg Herald, 27th.

Mr. Ward Simmons, of the U. S. S. Terry, now stationed at Charleston, came to Newberry Friday, after attending the Shriners' meeting in Sumter. He left on Saturday for Spartanburg to visit his mother and sisters before returning to his duties.

The Rev. Dr. Monroe J. Epting was in the city Thursday, on his return home from Greenwood where, on Wednesday night he had officiated in the marriage ceremony of a niece, brief notice of which will be found elsewhere.

The home of Jeff B. Amick in the upper part of town has been purchased by Congressman A. F. Lever who is having it remodeled. If Madam Rumor be true, the house when completed will be occupied by one of our prominent young couples who are soon to be married.—Lexington Dispatch, 26th.

Rev. W. C. Shaeffer, Jr., pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, Atlanta, is the president of synod. To meet him is to be impressed with his strong personality. To hear him, is to be moved and stirred profoundly.—Lutheran Church Visitor. Newberry likes to hear of "Carl," in such a pleasant manner.

Col. and Mrs. W. H. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McCaughrin and little Albert, Misses Fannie and Lucy McCaughrin, Miss Minnie Gist and Mrs. O. McR. Holmes were in Greenwood Thursday and took Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. J. C. Harper, who was Miss Nannie McCaughrin.

Misses Margaret Davis, Cornelia Mayer and Marion Jones, of the College for Women, spent Thanksgiving at home, coming on Saturday and returning to Columbia Monday. Miss Virginia Pool, of Williamston, spent the time with her schoolmate, Miss Mayer. Miss Margaret Burton, another of the students visited Miss Janie Morse, in Abbeville.

Mr. Thos. P. Wicker and his bride arrived Saturday. They will be at home to their friends at 820 Langford street. Welcome to Newberry. The friends are glad to receive Thos. P. Wicker as a groom and his bride to their city and to have them among the younger married set in the social life of the place. May their residence here be one of happiness and all the good of life.

Dr. John Henry Harms, president of Newberry college, while in town on business connected with the college, made an address before the school on Wednesday morning. He was in a very happy vein and throughout his talk he tried to emphasize the need and importance of an education to his young hearers. This community has always been very loyal to Newberry, and at all times those connected with the college are welcome to the homes of its many friends.—Cameron cor. News and Courier.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Old Santa Claus will soon be with us again.—Orangeburg Times and Democrat. He has sent word that he would be in Newberry on time.

Fourteen are dead as result of football and 175 have been injured in games this year.—Headlines in daily papers.

Many of the stores were closed a part of Thursday and it was a quiet and peaceful Thanksgiving day in Newberry.

Mr. Edison talks like a newspaper man. He says he gets sick when he stops work.—Anderson Mail. That man Edison must be all right.

Are there enough suffragettes or suffragists in Newberry to organize an association. The suffraget hasn't had the suffrage yet.

We are thankful that buttermilk has been so plentiful and its price so cheap the past year.—Greenville Piedmont. Funny man, that.

Pellagra had more cases in South Carolina in 1913 than in 1912, although Newberry county had less.—37 in 1912 and 8 in 1913.

David Hayes won the drum and cow boy suit for the most votes at the book and variety store of Jno. B. Mayes.

Preachers as a general rule hardly ever go hunting. It is hard luck that when one does go he misses performing a marriage ceremony.

We told you of Cheshire's Harpoon few days ago. The Harpoon has hung its harp upon a willow tree, sorry to say, because Mr. Cheshire could have given us some live reading matter.

Some of the moving pictures may be extravagant, but they portray real life.—Anderson Mail. "Ain't it so?" 'Tis in Newberry at the Arcade, the Theatre and the Opera house.

Do the moving picture makers ever go into winter quarters?—Anderson Mail. No and we are glad of it. Don't know what some people in Newberry would do if they did.

The Ladies Aid society of the First Thursday night, near the midnight hour. But the cause was only a case of matches set by rats in the store of E. M. Lane & Co. Discovered in time to be put out before there was any damage.

Ultimately there will be a network of interurban electric railway in South Carolina. Already the work is well under way and, in a few more years, should be twice as far advanced.—Exchange. This is the sort of talk we like to hear. Hope Newberry will be in it.

Abbeville Medium reproduces what The Herald and News said about illicit liquor selling. The Medium says that "some persons seem to think that the enforcement of the whiskey laws is a duty of prohibitionists," and that "it is a little curious that their logic is not applied to other laws."

For the period of five minutes, at 11 o'clock Friday morning, every office and train and shop on the Southern, suspended work. At that hour the late president's funeral was being held. The five minutes silence along that great system must have been impressive.

The Y. M. C. A. has begun a study of Dr. Weatherford's "Present Forces in Negro Progress," under the skilled leadership of Dr. George B. Cromer. Much interest has been taken in the work. The men seem to appreciate Dr. Cromer's ballity by giving him a large class.—Cor. Daily Press, 1st.

Thanksgiving day was a great time for bird and rabbit hunting and hundreds of men and boys were out with gun and dogs. Master J. S. Floyd, the nine year old son of John S. Floyd, of number six township, while picking cotton that day counted 1,035 shots fired by hunters in his neighborhood.

The Sunday school mass meeting at the First Baptist church on Sunday afternoon as mentioned in last week's paper, was well attended, and each speaker held the attention of the hearers by his happy remarks. A spirit of enthusiasm prevailed, making the meeting a successful prelude to the meeting this Monday night at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer.

If I had to single out one gift of God as being the chief one of many in my daily life I believe I would say, "Thank God for a mind to work."—Union Times. That is a new one, but a good one and one of the best yet, but judging from the daily walk and conversation and chief actions, there are a few in Newberry who don't thank God for a mind to work.

The Greenville Piedmont says some people over in York county live in Chester all the time. But there's nothing in a name. Over in Newberry county we know of a town they call Prosperity.—Dillon Herald. And we also have Silverstreet, which is not so very far from Goldville. Could mention more, but that's enough.

The time of year is coming when some people will indulge in the abominable habit of spelling Christmas Xmas. It is an easy way and convenient, but that is all that can be said for it. It is ugly and wrong and spoils a good word. It is hard to understand how so many really sensible people can be guilty of the habit. Surely it is simple thoughtlessness on their part.

In Newberry it is as in other places. The poet says he hesitates to draw the line between the two classes of man where God has not drawn it. That one finds so much of goodness in men whom men condemn, and find so much of sin in men whom men pronounce divine. It is an interesting study to the student of human nature. It is something like the blending of the sanity and insanity of the mind.

The attorney general says it is unlawful to sell paper cap pistols, and it is to be hoped the law will be enforced during the holidays. Heretofore this law has been a dead letter, and the paper cap pistol has been sold open and above board. It is a good law, and the dealer who fails to ob-

Contest Will Close Friday, Dec. 19 at Twelve O'clock

R. H. Anderson and Summer Bros. Co. Take Personal Interest in Contest by Awarding Valuable Prizes as Specials This Week.

The prizes last week were given by Gilder and Weeks, E. M. Lane Grocery Co., and J. T. Mayes and Co.

Miss Louise Counts won first choice, Mrs. Geo. Senn was second and Miss Vida Counts was content with the third. These young ladies wish to thank the merchants for these useful gifts. They say that it shows that a merchant's "heart is in the right place," when he donates prizes in a contest like this.

This Week's Specials.

"Let your light so shine" is what Mr. Summer of Summer Bros. Co. said when he told the contest manager he would give to the young lady who brought in the most cash for subscriptions, job work or advertising by Saturday, December 6 at 2 o'clock, one-half dozen Mazda Tungston lamps.

Again we are giving a lady's dress-ski. This time the gift of R. H. Anderson, and the young lady winning this prize has her choice of any $3.50 skirt in the house. They have some beauties too, you must call and look through their stock.

Special Bonus Offers.

The three offers of last week hold good again this week—100,000 extra votes for every club of $35.00 worth of those "job work or advertising" coupons sold. 75,000 extra votes for every club of fifteen one year new subscribserve it should be made to pay the penalty.—Dillon Herald. Lives may be saved in Newberry as well as elsewhere by observing this law.

The Columbia State of the 27th carries a story of another double wedding—this time in the family of Mr. C. C. Cooper, of Eau Claire, Columbia. Mr. Cooper, the father of the two young men in the joint affair, is a brother-in-law of Mrs. B. E. Julien, of Helena, and the double wedding is a matter of interest to many persons. Dr. Ernest Cooper and Mr. Wm. Cochran Cooper married on the evening of the 27th, at 6 o'clock, the one in Baltimore and the other in Florence.

That set of false teeth was called for. There have been many things lost and so mentioned in these columns, but never a false set of teeth. We were prepared to give the teeth to the first party calling, knowing that nobody would use teeth belonging to somebody else, so just as soon as a man the next day came in and claimed them they were given over, although it was at first thought the set belonged to a woman's mouth, from the size of the teeth.

Sheriff Cannon G. Blease and Deputy Wm. M. Dorroh went to Mr. W. J. Wicker's place in the country on Sunday morning and arrested Belt Piester for shooting Teague Sligh. They also arrested Bag Piester for selling liquor and Pleas Caldwell for carrying concealed weapon. The officers brought the men, all colored, to jail. Bag Piester gave bond. The shooting between Belt Piester and Teague Sligh occurred at the above mentioned place on Saturday night. Sligh was shot through the hip, the ball coming out at the pit of the stomach, and is dangerously wounded.

Funny. A man comes to the reporter and relates something. He is aware that it is the reporter's business to write and he knows at the time he is talking to a newspaper man, who is liable to print it if it is worth printing and he thinks the man is talking for publication. The reporter goes ahead and prints his stuff. The man sees him next day and tells him he didn't intend that for publication, or this, that or the other about it, he has to have something to say. Sometimes he tells other people the same thing, but they see through it and know how to take him, even as the reporter sees and knows.

Selling Ford Cars.

Summer's garage has been selling Ford cars some recently. The following is a list of those who have recently purchased Ford touring cars from the Summer garage agency:

John Miller, J. Will Suber, Tom Abrams, W. P. McCullough, Whitmire, Joe W. Epting, Ed. Schumpert, Turner Hipp, W. T. Livingston, Newberry.

Christmas Gift for You at Robinson's. Robinson's Ten Cent store is giving away to the first 500 Christmas shoppers, a beautiful souvenir—present. This is worth in value about three times as much as the present they gave away to their first Christmas shoppers last year. Shop early and get yours.—Adv.

ers. 75,000 extra votes for every club of twenty-five one year renewals of subscriptions to The Herald and News.

In addition to these offers we make another that positively will only last till December 6.

Instead of the regular scale of 1,000 votes to the dollar for job work and advertising, we will give 2,000 votes for each dollar. This is besides the 100,000 bonus for the $35.00 club.

These special bonus offers are the things that count and you should not stop at taking advantage of just one, but double up. Get as many clubs as you can.

Just think of it only two more weeks till you will be glad or sad.

It behooves each and every contestant to get as busy as you can, for you realize that the time will soon roll around and if you do not take advantage of this good advice and opportunity knocking at your door you will perhaps be an eye witness to a grand procession led by a grand prize, the player piano, headed for your neighbor's home, when it would have perhaps been going to your house had you taken your opportunity by the hand and gone forth as suggested.

Call on Mrs. Bullock, the contest manager, at any time and let her help you win one of these prizes.

Correct standing of contestants will be published in next issue.

Clean Up Week.

The Civic association has arranged with the city authorities for the people of Newberry to observe the second week in December, beginning December 8th, as Clean Up Week. An additional cart will be provided, and Monday will be given to the work of getting up trash, etc. Then the carts will come around on:

Tuesday, Ward 1.
Wednesday, Ward 2.
Thursday, Ward 3.
Friday, Ward 4.
Saturday, Ward 5.

The housekeepers are urged now and at all times to put their trash in receptacles of some kind, as the ordinance requires, and not loose on the street.

Christmas will soon be here and we ought to have a clean town with which to finish up the year. This will mean not only a good appearance for our town but health for us all as well.

Please be ready for the carts at the appointed time.

U. D. C. Convention.

This convention will be held on December 24, at Edgefield. In the list of delegates and place of entertainment are the following from this town and county:

Mrs. E. Pendleton Jones and Mrs. R. D. Wright with Mrs. J. W. Leak.

Mrs. J. H. Harms with Mrs. Joe Ouzts.

Miss Gertrude Bobb with Miss Sophia Dobson.

Mrs. W. H. Hunt with Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman.

Miss Ethel Bowers with Mrs. Kate Cheatham.

Mrs. W. H. Carwile with Mrs. R. A. Marsh.

Master's Sales.

Monday was a very disagreeable day, raining most of the morning, and, therefore, the attendance upon the public sales was not large, though in the three cases by the master most of the land sold at a good price.

In the case of D. B. Cook et al against W. Henry Hughey et al 36.03 acres were bought by D. B. Cook for $800.00; 138.37 acres by D. B. Cook for $2,000.00.

In the case of Thomas W. Folk et al against Ada L. Perry et al there were several tracts, the same being the real estate formerly owned by Capt. H. H. Folk, deceased; 23.92 acres were bought by E. C. Folk for $6,000.00; 166.97 acres by J. A. Crapps for $1,300.00; 249.73 acres by C. M. Folk for $2,500.00; 135.18 acres by C. M. Folk for $600.00; 45.48 acres by John H. Shealy for $1,855.00; 58.70 acres by T. W. Folk for $1,400.00; 60.28 acres by C. M. Folk for $680.00.

In the case of the British American Mortgage company against Hettie I. Kennerly et al 283 acres were sold to the National bank of Newberry for $4,000.00.

It is R. H. Anderson not Anderson Dry Goods store that is giving the lady's dress skirt in The Herald and News contest this week.

20 Pounds Sugar $1.00.

With every $5.00 worth of goods you buy, you are entitled to 20 pounds of sugar for $1.00, Moseley Bros., Prosperity, S. C.—Adv.
